WINTERGREEN WINS DERBY

LEADS THROUGHOUT IN KENTUCKY'S BIG RACE AND WINS OFF BY HIMSELF.

Miami About as Easily Second, with Dr. Barkley Third-Big Attendance Views the Race and Takes Kindly to Mutuels.

Leuisville, Ky., May 3.—J. B. Respess' Dick Welles colt, Wintergreen, landed the thirty-fifth Kentucky Derby from a good band of three-year-olds in the presence of a large gathering. J. N. Camden's Miami was four lengths back of the winner and three lengths in advance of Dr. Barkley, which beat Sir Catesby a head for third place.

Wintergreen's performance was a sparkler and proves him a superior three-year-old. He was nearly thrown soon after the start when Dr. Barkley colided with him, but Powers made him recover quickly ann going into a long lead, hid Miami, his keep in strength of the land of the land him the cover quickly ann going into a long lead, hid Miami, his keep in strength into a long lead, hid Miami, his keep in strength in the along lead, hid Miami, his keep in strength in the along lead, hid Miami, his keep in strength in the along lead, hid Miami, his keep in strength in the along lead, hid Miami, his keep in strength in the sold of the lead, but the Respess colt never faltered and stayed in game fashion through the stretch.

The disappointments of the race proved to be Friend Harry, Direct, Michael Angelo and Warfield. The first named was considered highly by his connections, but after running prominently for a half, the tred badly. The going, made soft by the early morning rain, might have militated against him, but not sufficiently to warrant the belief that he is in the same form he showed as a two-year-old. Direct and Warfield had no apparent mishaps and theh running was decidedly disappointing.

A steady rain during the morning hours threatened to mar today's sport, and caused many a love of racing to remain away from the course. Shortly strength in the common hour the sun made a caspectar strength of the proper control of the pr in the nutuel machines. The auction pools sales crea also heavy and it all established a high mark for a single day's wagering through the new system.

Today's card was one of the best in years, and urnished high-class racing. The finishes in some of the races were close enough to suit the most fastidious, and kent the crowd in a high pitch of excitement all the time. Several surprises, caused by the defeats of the favorites, gave the long-shot players a chance. The victories of Cymbal, Southern Gold and Ethelburg were unexpected.

In the opener, Crystal Maid repeated her Lexington performance by taking Dainity Dame's measure in easy style. Boyal Tourist, the favorite, failed to easy style. Hoyal Tourist, the favorite, failed to easy style. Boyal Tourist, the favorite, failed to easy style. Hoyal Tourist, the favorite, failed to easy style. Hoyal Tourist, the favorite, failed to easy style. Hoyal Tourist, the favorite in easy style. Howal Tourist, the favorite in the favorite in the order named to the chagrin of those who had pinned their faith to Enfield.

Southern Gold's head victory over Donau was attributable to Heidel, who gave the favorite an overconfident ride and allowed Southern Gold to get too big a lead on him

Days' Racing This Summer,

John Condon has returned from Denver, where he went to make arrangements for racing the coming mamer. He said yesterday that the Overland Park went to pass on jockey Mountain's latest application for a license. The trider had confidently expected that he would be restored to favor this afternoon and came to the track prepared to accept mounts.

Jokkey A. Walsh was fined $25 by the starter for disobedience at the post in the closing race.

asked for and secured permission to use it. It is as follows:

"My many weeks confinement at home and absence from my office make it doubtful whether I can come to the meeting, but I am sure that I feel and thank you for the chance and the courtesy.

MEXICAN TWO-YEAR-OLDS RUN WELL.

Merry Gift Wins for Schorr-Charlie Eastman and

Ben Cole the Winning Favorites.

Baltimore, Md., May 3.—The Montpelier Stable, owned by R. T. Wilson, Jr., furnished the winner in both the two-year-old races at Pimlico this afternoon, in Zacatecas and Mexoana, both of which are by Mr. Wilson's stallion Mexican, which will be remembered as a high-class colt a few seasons back. Both Mexoana and Zacatecas showed much speed and both won in easy fashion after leading their opponents from start to finish.

It was a hard day on favorite backers, Charlie Eastman and Ben Cole being the only winning choices.

Jockey E. Dugan is fast losing the followers he made during the early days of the meeting. Dugan failed to ride a winner on Saturday and the best he could do today was to finish second. The sixth race furnished the only close finish of the afternoon, Live Wire winning by a nose from Pins and Needles after a long, hard stretch drive, in which the winner displayed rare gameness.

John F. Schorr's stable, in which the winner displayed rare gameness.

John F. Schorr's stable the chargeon is mother winner day in Merry Gift, which captured the closing rece after mades. Such chargeon is Merry Gift is a rather small filly, but possesses great speed. She made so fast a horse as Simple Honours dizzy in following her for the first half-mile and at the end drew away into an easy lead.

Charlie Eastman another westerner, finished in front when he beat a fair band in the second race. This horse is owned by a Cinchmati man, W. A. Hughes, who telegraphed his trainer, Lee Christy to arrange to ship his stable to Louisville as soon as nossible.

Jockey Jimmy Reid suffered a sprained thumb as: a result of his being unseated from Jeanette M. On Saturday last. This will keep him out of the saddle until Thursday.

Slias Veltch purchased before the races today the black mare. Pompous, from Colonel Robert Neville, and shipped her, togethee with Grandpa, to Belmont Park tonkah.

ONTARIO JOCKEY CLUB'S STAKE ENTRIES.

Remarkable Number of High-Class Racers Non nated for Toronto's Approaching Meeting.

The stakes of the Ontario Jockey Club, which closed for entries April 24, filled in gratifying fastion, but no more so than lwas due this liberally conducted racing organization. In values of stakes and purses and in its high standard of racing, it is easily first among Canadian turt bodies, and amply deserves its high place in the estimation of owners and trainers of the United States, as well as those of the Dominion. Hence, when one reads that such cracks as Jack Atkin, King James, Fitz Herbert, Jeff Bernstein, High Private, Joe Madden, Restiguede Hanbridge, Statesman, Photographer, Riffeman, Ironsides, Twilight Queen, Guy Fisher, Cave Adsum, Stanley Fay, Light Wool, Bouquet, Gretna Green, Simcoe, Ellicott, Tourenne, Ida May, Bell wother, Monuette, Green Seal, Miss Sain, Denham, Unimmer, Charlie Glibert, Eyebrikht, Gondelion, Stromeland, Direct, Warfield, Red River, Smiley Cortet, Lady Irma, Peter Oulne, Rose Queen and Donald Macdonald are among the many good horses nominated to its stakes, it furnished no occasion for great surprise, but merely confirms the general expectation of high-class racing at the Toronto spring meeting. The stakes closed and number of entries received were:

Martin Nathanson, who is here from California, will be secretary and handleapper of the meeting and F. J. Bryan presiding judge, and J. Tribe will probably start the horses. The Colorado Derby will be one of the meeting's features and the Colorado Handleap an important event of the closing day.

Mr. Nathanson will shape the conditions of the five or six stakes of the meeting within the next few days. The purses will be from $300 to $500 in value, averaging $2,100 to $2,200 daily. He has also to arrange the harness events—a new side of racing to him. All the races this year will be run on the nile outside track formerly used only for harness races.

$5,000 FOR BROOKLYN HANDICAP OF 1909.

New York, May 3.—The stake book of the Brooklyn Jockey Club spring meeting has been issued. Amounts to be run for are reduced in comparison with other years. The Brooklyn Handicap, one of America's greatest handicaps, has a $5,000 value. The Parkway, Brookdale. Tremont, Broadway and Great American are guaranteed at $2,500 each.

All of the other stakes have added money of $1,000 or less, the steeplechase stakes calling for but $800 or $600 in added money.

Further than the indorsement of the association of owners and breeders to guarantee the Brooklyn Jockey Club against loss on eleven stakes, no coment is made on the situation in the pamphlet. Stakes close on May 15.

Dainty Dame and a good race and but for being in the worst going might have won. All Red was close up for the first half, but tired in the stretch racing. Wool Sandals showed speed, but quit in the stretch. Royal Tourist, away well, failed to show much speed and probably disliked the going. Goldproof dropped out of contention after going a quarter.

Ethelburg, away fast, followed Placide closely for the first three furlongs and wore him down in the last furlong, but had to do his best after taking the lead to stall off Martine H. The latter was gaining at the finish and would have won at a longer distance. Placide showed a good flight of early speed in pacemaking, but tired near the end. Wintergreen broke fast and was bumped into soon after the start by Dr. Barkley, but recovered quickly and, taking a good lead, held sway throughout and won in a canter. Miami, clear of interference, followed Wintergreen in closest pursuit throughout and finished fast and gamely, but was not good enough. Dr. Barkley ran a cracking good race and outgamed Sir Catesby in the last few strides. Sir Catesby showed much improvement, closed a gap early and finished resolutely. St. Elmwood, forced to go wide, gradually improved his position, inished fast and would have won in a few more strides. First Peep, away poorly, closed a big gap and was probably best. Stone Street tired after going well for three-quarters. Arrow Swift closed a big gap, came fast in the stretch and was going best of all at the end. Militades was almost thrown when Paul livinart cut sharply across in the first furlong. Paul Ruinart showed speed, but quit after going three-quarters. The winner was entered for $500: no bid.
